

October 13, 2009

Dear WVU Homecoming Parade Participant:

We are pleased to invite you to participate in the West Virginia University Homecoming Parade on Friday, October 23, 2009. The parade begins at 6:30 p.m. and all of our participants must be in the appropriate location by 5:00 p.m.

We are always encouraged by the University and community response to this activity that all seem to enjoy. But, for our parade to be successful, we need to insure that all participants are well informed of the City of Morgantown and University guidelines for this event. Please make sure you and your organizations read and understand the enclosed Homecoming Parade Rules and Regulations.

To expedite the planning of the parade, please complete the enclosed application and return a $50.00 entry fee as indicated below:

Make all checks payable to West Virginia University S.H.O.P. and Indicate Homecoming parade on the memo line of the check. Entry fee is due with the application. No cash or ATM cards will be accepted. There is no fee for Non-Profit and student organizations.

Application Deadline is October 19, 2009
There will be an additional $10.00 fee for late applications.

If you have any questions regarding the West Virginia University Homecoming Parade, feel free to contact our office (293-4397). We look forward to your participation in our annual Homecoming Parade and other activities at West Virginia University.

Sincerely yours,

Ron Justice
Director
Student Organization Services

Conditions of Participation in the WVU Homecoming Parade 2009

All parade participants must adhere to the following conditions:

1. Flame retardant material must be used on all floats and parade units.
2. Maximum float length is 40 feet. Maximum float width is 15 feet. Maximum float height is 10 feet from bed of truck.
3. Maximum capacity of 10 persons per float.
4. Live animals are permitted in the parade only if provisions are made to insure no animal waste will litter the streets. Failure to guard against such debris will result in immediate removal from the parade.
5. Alcoholic beverages, beer or liquor, and any type of drug use strictly prohibited by any participant in parade.
6. All vehicles must have sufficient gasoline to proceed through the parade route.
7. Auxiliary combustion engines (lawn mower type) are prohibited on the parade unit.
8. Generators may be carried on towing vehicles with secure, approved extension cords running to the float.
9. An approved and inspected fire extinguisher of ABC rating (5-lb. minimum) is required on all floats.
10. Any person riding in a concealed area on a float must have easy means of escape.
11. Use of combustible materials on any parade unit is strictly prohibited (included tissue paper, corn stalks, hay bales). Colored tissue paper may be used if attached in chicken wire (If colored tissue is used a person must walk beside the float with a fire extinguisher.).
12. Participants in cars are responsible for providing their own parade car.
13. Units must proceed in a straight line down the center of the street.
14. No items, including but limited to, candy or campaign items/materials, may be thrown from any unit. Units that do so will be immediately removed from the parade.
15. Participants must pick up any thing that falls off a unit during the parade route.
16. Units must maintain a distance of 15 feet behind the preceding unit.
17. At the end of the parade, units including cars, floats, or people walking, must obey directions of parade personnel. Failure will result in immediate ejection from the parade and prevent future participation in any subsequent parades.
18. WVU reserves the right to refuse any potential participant based on WVU's rules, policies, and procedures.
19. The Morgantown Fire Department retains the right to deny participation to any float or other conveyance that does not comply with these guidelines or may present any other safety concerns.

Failure to adhere to conditions will result in ejection from parade.

Questions regarding fire prevention guidelines should be directed to Ken Tennant with the Morgantown Fire Department at 284-7480.
